AGENCY EVENTS AND NEWS

For Therapists: Self-Leadership and Healing - November 2022

Self Leadership is based off the Internal Family Systems therapy modality and is an eclectic approach in guiding clients utilizing psychotherapy built upon the concepts of systems thinking, multiplicity, and attachment. This approach is a non-pathologizing intrapsychic therapy in which events (trauma, adverse experiences) have influenced parts (subpersonalities) of the system to become extreme protectors of the vulnerable, hurting, young parts of the system.

Understanding Grief and Loss by Stark County Mental Health & Addiction Recovery

Grief is something that 100% of the population experiences. This program will focus on the defining mourning, grief, bereavement and complicated grief as well as discuss the difference between complicated and normal grief. In order for funeral directors to better serve their families, it's important to look at key, specific issues. It will also look at the factors that make our grief unique from one another.

CARESOURCE DONATES $2 MILLION TO SUPPORT DAYTON CHILDREN'S BEHAVIORAL HEALTH EXPANSION

Dayton Children's announced today a $2 million donation by CareSource to support its new behavioral health building. The building, announced in May, will nearly double the number of inpatient beds available for children in a behavioral health crisis.

The $2 million donation from CareSource was made in honor of Jayda Grant, daughter of Anthony Grant, University of Dayton men's basketball coach, and his wife, Christina. Jayda passed away in May 2022. The donation was announced last night at an event held at the home of CareSource president and CEO, Erhardt Preitauer, to an audience of corporate leaders from the Dayton community.
